

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS AND INSURANCE

You will find that our fees for specialized care are comparable to other Nephrologists in this area. If you have medical insurance to cover your expenses, we will, as a courtesy to you, file your insurance. We want to help you receive your maximum allowable benefits, and in order to achieve these goals, we will need your assistance and your understanding of our payment policy.

If you do not have medical insurance, you are expected to pay for services incurred at the time of service. We realize that individual financial situations may affect timely payment of your account. If this is the case, you will be asked to talk to one of our account representatives to set up a regular payment plan for services incurred.

We will make every effort to maximize your insurance benefits, but you must understand the following:

- 1) Your insurance coverage is a contract between you and the insurance company. We are not a part of that contract.
- 2) Insurance companies often judge a fee as "usual and customary" (UCR). As a specialist in Nephrology our fees are grouped in with other nephrologists for UCR calculation. Therefore, some of our fees may be slightly higher than the UCR because of the severity of different problems with individual patients.
- 3) Not all services are a covered benefit in all contracts. Some insurance companies arbitrarily select certain services they will not cover.
- 4) If your insurance company requires a referral and/or preauthorization, you are responsible for obtaining it. Failure to obtain the referral and/or preauthorization may result in a lower or no payment from the insurance company, and the balance will be your responsibility.

We must emphasize that our relationship is with you as a patient, not with your insurance company. While the filing of insurance claims is a courtesy that we extend to our patients, all charges are your responsibility from the date the services are rendered.

If you have any questions about the above information or any uncertainty regarding insurance coverage, please don't hesitate to ask our staff. We are here to help you.

This is to certify that I, the undersigned, agree to accept full responsibility for the payment of all fees and that I have read, understand, and agree to the financial arrangements stated above.
